EDITORIAL

WE believe that "to the pure all things are pure" and if one is seeking for BEAUTY in art he will find it. On the contrary, if one is seeking for something UNCLEAN he will also find that.

In the past few years there has been a decided change in the mental attitude of people as a whole toward art. The Society of Independent Artists of America has had an active part in this change, as have also the popular art magazines in presenting new forms of art to the public. In this way a great deal of antagonism to the nude in art has been overcome.

A few years ago a painting of a NUDE FIGURE, unless it was of a religious nature, created a furore of criticism and was immediately banned from public exhibition. Today this has been changed and now the nude in art is accepted as a natural thing and does not create any undue excitement or adverse criticism.

We believe that any form of creative art should be encouraged and also be available to everyone. So we take pleasure in offering in STUDIO LIFE original and unusual compositions of nude studies expressly designed for the promotion of art appreciation.

—THE EDITOR.

STUDIO LIFE is published monthly by the Sonia Gravure Company, Wilmington, Delaware. No subscriptions. Newsstand sale only. 25 cents a copy.

Joyce Compton's
Pet Hobby is

otherwise engaged on the Lot in Fox Films

*Two studies of Widely Varied Moods
By Mandel*

Long slender limbs characterize this model

Foliage is a Splendid Foil for this Model

"Is she not passing fair?"

Old Lace acquires a new grace when combined with Youthful Slenderness

One reason why the French Atelier is the Mecca of American Art Students

The "come-hither" look in this model's eyes is most intriguing!

SOLITUDE

Curves and Plumpness are coming back into favor in the studio

"Is she not a fine young painting of femininity
Or youthful pure fancy
when they lay

Variety is the very spice of life, that gives it all its flavor — in models as well as old wine.

Modern Faeries in the Woods—

"Beauty is truly blent whose red and white Nature's own sweet and cunning hand lays on—"

Book of Oscar Greiner who is well known for his exceptional life studies

The Maiden's Offering

Nature at its Loveliest — the Model is exceptionally graceful

"If to her share some female errors fall
Look on her face, and you'll forget them all!"

Complete relaxation is the chief charm in this pose

Emotion is expressed in every feature

In contrast to the photo on the opposite page this model is entirely relaxed

Carefree — Nothing to do until tomorrow!

Between the Acts

A Model of the Victorian era

The fluent lines of this model's body are semastrol

Charm is emphasized by using a lace drape

Effective use of drapery brings a sharp contrast in light and shadow

The photograph in this column is by Alfred Stieglitz of 1911, in the opposite page

The value of this composition lies in the simplicity of pose

Her modest looks a cottage might adorn Sweet as a primrose peeping beneath the thorn
